The Editor is solely responsible for the general policies, compiling, editing, publishing, and distributing of this publication. Neither the magazine nor the Editor assumes responsibility for errors of fact or opinion on the part of contributors. The publication of reliable genealogical source material of North Carolina, as an aid to both amateur and professional genealogists, is the chief aim of the magazine.

EDITOR'S PAGE

Your Editor is pleased with the large number of subscribers who not only renewed promptly but also ordered copies of TNC's Five-Year Index (1955-59). The Index is progressing, slowly but surely, but is taking longer than anticipated. Hope to have it ready to mail by May or June.

When TNC began in March of 1955, your Editor, in a burst of enthusiasm, and in need of moral support, asked half a dozen of his friends, relatives, and acquaintances to form an editorial staff for the infant magazine. Each of the six was genealogically minded and had many North Carolina ancestors, but due to places of residence, ages, professional and family duties, etc., not one was in a position to be of actual assistance in the compiling, editing, publishing, and distributing of the magazine. A few contributed several pages for publication, but the material was for the most part limited to either a few families or concentrated in small areas so that very little of it could be used. Therefore, beginning with this issue, the editorial staff has been completely abolished. Your Editor now stands alone, publicly, as sole compiler, editor, publisher, and distributor of TNC, as he has been in fact the past five years. TNC still remains a "labor of love," and your Editor must do genealogical research for clients in between issues of the magazine, not only to support himself, but to help pay the expenses of the magazine. Your patronage would be very much appreciated.

The Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, held its Third Annual Genealogical Institute on January 8th and 9th of this year. Sponsored by the Department of History and General Extension Division in cooperation with the Louisiana Genealogical and Historical Society. TNC subscriber Mrs. Gilbert B. Fletcher, program chairman, wrote: "We do hope that some of you Carolinians will come to our Institute, which we hope to hold next year, probably developing into a permanent workshop." For further information write to Mrs. Fletcher at 1314 Audubon Street, New Orleans 18, Louisiana.

The following census records of Virginia are now available (on microfilm), for the first time in North Carolina, in the Genealogy Department of the State Library in Raleigh: 1810, 1820, 1840, and 1850. Mrs. Margaret Price, Genealogy Librarian, also informs us that census records are also available for N. C., 1800-1880.

TENNESSEE MARRIAGE RECORDS--VOLUME 2
HAWKINS COUNTY, 1789-1865

This is the second in a series of valuable genealogical source material books edited by Miss Pollyanna Creekmore. The marriage bonds and licenses were transcribed by Prentiss Price from the originals in the county courthouse at Rogersville. Over 200 pages; nicely mimeographed; 8½" x 11"; marriages arranged alphabetically, with an index to justices, ministers, securities, witnesses, etc. Price: $10.00. Order from: The Family Record Society, 204 Mercantile Bldg., Knoxville 2, Tennessee.

MARRIAGES OF ORANGE COUNTY, VIRGINIA, 1747-1810

This is Catherine Lindsay Knorr's thirteenth volume of Virginia marriage records published the past ten years (see TNC, Dec., '57, inside back cover; and Mar., '59, issue, p. 515). Orange County was formed in 1734; Frederick Co. formed 1743 from Orange; Augusta Co. formed 1745 from Orange; Culpeper Co. formed 1749 from Orange [Madison Co. formed 1793 from Culpeper; Rappahannock Co. formed 1833 from Culpeper]; Greene Co. formed 1838 from Orange. These Orange County marriages begin with a marriage agreement dated 1747 (Thomas Wiatt and Suky Edmondson), but the bulk of the records begin in the 1770's. Thus this volume is a splendid record of marriages in later-day Orange (including Greene) County, Virginia. Price: $5.00. Order from Mrs. H. A. Knorr, 1401 Linden Street, Pine Bluff, Arkansas.

GRIFFIN--BLANCHARD FAMILY HISTORY

Miss Hazel C. Griffin, a native of Woodland, Northampton County, North Carolina, has compiled and published a genealogy of the Griffin and Blanchard families of Northampton and other counties of northeastern N. C., and southeastern Virginia. Included are brief data on related families of Outland, Overman, Peele, Trueblood, Arnold, Belman, Bagget, McDaniel, Bridger, Baum, Beale, Farmer, Britton, and Bristow. Miss Griffin is endeavoring to trace her ancestor, Seth Griffin, who died c1823 in Northampton Co., probably a descendant of James Griffin, Quaker, who died c1748 in Chowan Co., N. C. The 100 copies of the Griffin--Blanchard Family History have all been sold, but a copy may be consulted in the Genealogy Department of the State Library in Raleigh. Miss Griffin resides at 317 Dixie Trail, Raleigh, North Carolina.

ALLDREDGE--ALDRIDGE--BRACKEN--NESMITH FAMILIES AND THEIR KIN

In addition to voluminous data on the Alldredge, Aldridge, Bracken, and Nesmith families, the compiler, Mrs. Memory (Aldridge) Lester, has included in this volume much data on the families of Roberts, Watterson, Nicks, Price, Chaney, Kirby (Curbo, Curby), Turrentine, Rhodes, Nichols, Brashears (Brasseur), Dowell, Jones, Tydings, and Cager. The valuable results of some 40 years of research have been put into print. At least 8 of the families lived in Orange Co., N. C., prior to the American Revolution. 223 pages; 8½" x 11"; illustrated; no index. Price: $6.50, postpaid. Order from: Mrs. Memory Aldridge Lester, 606 South Columbia Street, Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

YEAR BOOK--PASQUOTANK HISTORICAL SOCIETY--VOLUME 2

The Pasquotank Historical Society, Elizabeth City, North Carolina, has published Volume 2 of their Year Book, 1956-57, with Brig. Genl. John Elliott Wood (U. S. A., Ret.) as editor. Actually, the volume is a veritable history of Pasquotank County, containing a wealth of collected historical and biographical sketches. Of special value to the genealogist are Pasquotank marriage bonds, 1760-1866; marriage records of Christ Episcopal Church, 1821-72, Elizabeth City, N. C.; and the 1850 Census of Pasquotank County. 324 pages; 5" x 9"; illustrated; no index; cloth bound. Price: $4.50, postpaid. Order from: Mr. E. O. Baum, President, Pasquotank Historical Society, 1124 Riverside Avenue, Elizabeth City, North Carolina.

ENGLISH DUPLICATES OF LOST VIRGINIA RECORDS

This volume was compiled from material found in the Public Record Office, London, England--original reports sent to the Colonial Office from Virginia, late 1600's and early 1700's. Included are lists of county officials; land entries and patents; the 1704 Rent Roll of Virginia; material pertaining to Bacon's Rebellion; lists of parishes, ministers, French refugees; jury trials (Francis Delamere, a pirate tried in 1700, was a Frenchman who made his home in Albemarle Co., N. C.); ships, masters and owners; etc. 380 pages; 6" x 9"; fully indexed; cloth bound. Price: $8.00, postpaid. Order from the compiler: Mr. Louis des Cognets, Jr., P. O. Box 163, Princeton, New Jersey. (EDITOR'S NOTE: This is one volume I chose for my library of select genealogical reference books; so many North Carolina families have roots in Virginia. See ad inside cover of this issue of TNC.)

1755 TAX LIST OF CUMBERLAND COUNTY

Cumberland County, North Carolina, was formed in 1754 from Bladen County. From 1754 until 1784 (when Moore County was formed) Cumberland County embraced all of the present-day counties of Cumberland, Harnett, and Moore; parts of Lee County (southern 90%), Hoke County (northeastern third), and probably the southern tip of Wake County. Moore County was formed from Cumberland County in 1784; Harnett County formed from Cumberland in 1855; Lee County formed in 1907 from parts of Chatham and Moore; and Hoke County formed 1911 from parts of Robeson and Cumberland Counties.

This 1755 tax list of Cumberland County (Archives, File No. T.0.105) is the county's oldest, and undoubtedly the very first, tax list, the next extant list being dated 1767. The names appear below as they were listed on the original, except that the surnames which are not in alphabetical order have been underlined to make them more easily spotted by the reader.

"A True List of the Taxab---(torn) in Cumberland County In the Year of our Lord 1755"

"Names of them that Gave in their Lists"-

NOTE: The three figures following each entry on the tax list represent the number of whites, mulattoes, and Negroes, in that order. Editor.

"So there is of Taxables in Cumberland County 302 White persons 11 Mollatos & 63 Negro's which is in all 376 As Appears by the Justices Lists Return'd to the Clerk: An Alphabetical list thereof is above; made out pr. Thos. Jones Clk. C. - Who is of Oppinion that there is Nigh Thirty Taxables more in the sd County who have not Given in their lists of Taxables according to Law."

This tax list covered a five-county area (almost), or over 2300 square miles. With slightly over 300 white taxables in the area in 1755, we can estimate that there was one person per square mile, on the average, or say one family of seven persons per every seven square miles. The same area, according to the 1950 Census, had a population of upwards of a quarter of a million persons, or an average of around 100 persons per square mile--an increase of 10,000% in two hundred years.

NEW WINSLOW DATA LOCATED

The ancestor of a large number of Winslows in the United States was the North Carolina Quaker, Thomas Winslow. A resident of Perquimans County, North Carolina, Thomas Winslow married in 1704 to Elizabeth Clare, daughter of Timothy and Mary (Bundy) Clare, and had nine children: Joseph, Mary, Thomas, Timothy, Jesse, John, Elizabeth, Job (or Joab), and Miriam. For a second wife, Thomas Winslow (Sr.) married in 1724 to Leah (Pritlowe) Smith, widow of Joseph Smith, and daughter of John and Elizabeth (--?--) Pritlowe. Many persons for many years tried unsuccessfully to ascertain the parentage of this Thomas Winslow (Sr.). Since Thomas' eldest son was named Joseph, some have thought that Thomas' father was Joseph Winslow (nephew of Edward Winslow, 3rd Gov. of Mass.), a New England trader who was in Perquimans Co., N. C., late 1670's, but no proof was ever found. Now the undersigned, after many years of research, has at long last solved the mystery as to the identity of the father of Thomas Winslow (Sr.) of Perquimans Co., N. C., backed up by documentary proof! This choice bit of genealogical data is now offered for sale, for $50.00.

THE McCUBBINS COLLECTION

The late Mame Gaskill McCubbins, of Salisbury, North Carolina, spent a lifetime collecting genealogical and historical material pertaining to Rowan County and its people in the 1700's and early 1800's. She abstracted Rowan County deeds, wills, marriage bonds, and court minutes; collected newspaper clippings; gathered patriotic lineages; made notes from pertinent published works; etc., etc. At her death, the collection of around 150,000 pages (upwards of 10,000 family surnames) was placed in the Genealogy Room of the Rowan Public Library, in Salisbury, North Carolina, where it has been made available to the public. The material has been arranged in rough alphabetical order, and a card-index of references and cross-references facilitates research.

Persons may do research in the Collection in person, if desired. Due to a small staff, however, the Library cannot do research for persons writing in for information from this Collection. Those who cannot visit the Rowan Public Library in person may write directly to a local genealogist, Mr. William D. Kizziah, former Register of Deeds for Rowan County, whose address is 209 West Bank Street, Salisbury, North Carolina.

The McCubbins Collection was microfilmed by the LDS Library in Salt Lake City, Utah, and a microfilm copy may be consulted there, and a second microfilm copy is in the Rowan Public Library. Rowan County Wills and Court Minutes are also available on microfilm in the Genealogy Room of the Rowan Public Library. In addition, a large collection of genealogical and historical books is available to the researcher, making the Genealogy Room of the Rowan Public Libary a good place for either the amateur or professional genealogist to do research. Much credit is due to Librarian Edith M. Clark for her efforts in this direction.

SOME ROWAN COUNTY MARRIAGE LICENSES, 1780-1805

Contributed by William D. Kizziah, Genealogist
209 West Bank Street
Salisbury, North Carolina

Below is a list of marriage licenses found in the desk of Rev. Samuel Eusebius McCorkle, minister at historic "Thyatira," probably the oldest Presbyterian Church in North Carolina which can prove its origin by documentary evidence. Dr. McCorkle's desk is the property of a descendant, residing in Rowan County. These licenses were found in 1934 by William D. Kizziah, then Register of Deeds for Rowan County. The contracting parties were from both Iredell and Rowan Counties; two licenses were issued in Iredell County (Hugh Robison and James Hughes), the rest in Rowan County. Thyatira Church is located nine miles west of Salisbury on Highway 150. Dr. McCorkle was one of the founders of the state university; he died in 1811.

NOTE: Mississinewa Monthly Meeting was the oldest, largest, and most important Quaker Meeting in north central Indiana in the middle 1800's; it became Marion Monthly Meeting in 1889. Hundreds of Quaker families represented; thousands of persons on record. Back Creek Monthly Meeting (1838), and Deer Creek Monthly Meeting (1869), both in Grant County, were formed from Mississinewa. Honey Creek Monthly Meeting (1846), Howard County; Wabash Monthly Meeting (1851), Wabash County; Pipe Creek Monthly Meeting (1853), Miami County; and Birch Lake Meeting (established in 1837 as a Preparative Meeting; located in the State of Michigan), also stem from Mississinewa. Thus Mississinewa Monthly Meeting includes the earliest records for these six meetings, as well as for other meetings in the adjoining counties of Huntington and Wells. Incidentally, Indiana has been the center of Quaker population in the United States since the early 1800's.

CALDWELL COUNTY MARRIAGE BONDS, 1841-1861

Caldwell County, North Carolina, was formed in 1841 from Burke and Wilkes Counties. (Alexander County formed 1847 from parts of Caldwell, Iredell, and Wilkes Counties; Watauga County formed 1849 from parts of Ashe, Caldwell, Wilkes, and Yancey Counties; Mitchell County formed 1861 from parts of Burke, Caldwell, McDowell, Watauga, and Yancey Counties; and Avery County formed 1911 from parts of Caldwell, Mitchell, and Watauga Counties.)

Caldwell County marriage bonds date from 1846, there being a total of 123 bonds preserved for the 1841-1861 period (one bond, marked "1841" on the back with a pencil, is probably 1846 rather than 1841). No bonds have been preserved for the years 1841, 1842, 1843, 1844, and 1845; and it is probable that the 123 bonds covering the 1841-1861 period represent but a fraction of the total number of marriage licenses (and bonds) originally issued. Beginning in 1860 there are, in addition to the bonds, several licenses returned by the ministers and justices of the peace, showing dates of marriage and names of the persons performing the ceremony. Those that have both the bond and the license return (35 of them) are indicated, below, by an asterisk (*). (Caldwell County marriage records appear to be more complete beginning in 1862.)

ACCENT ON AUTOS

An analysis of a list of 300 business organizations in a typical North Carolina town of 6000 population clearly indicates that the accent today is on autos! First, let's list the business organizations, the largest groups first:

24 grocery stores
14 auto garages
14 cafes
12 insurance agencies
10 beauty shops
9 auto body shops
9 furniture stores
8 oil dealers
7 auto supply stores
7 barber shops
7 electric appliance dealers

1 shoe repair shop
1 transfer company

The following complete the town: one dozen churches three schools
bus station airport

chamber of commerce

It is significant that 25% of the 300 business organizations (75 business establishments) depend solely upon the automotive industry! And most if not all the other businesses are dependent in some degree upon the auto and related industries. Imagine what this same community was like in horse and buggy (or wagon) days, half a century ago!
